

Geography: County - Bacon County, GA

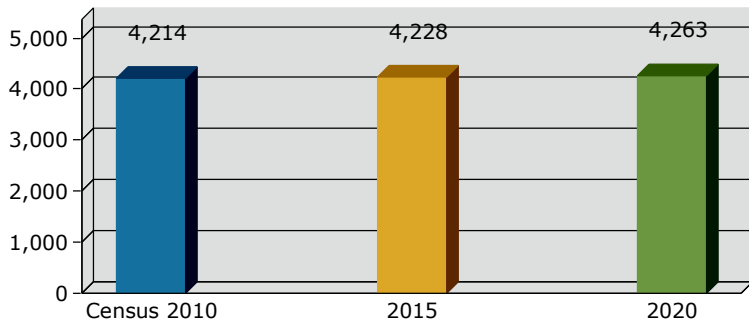

2015 Population by Race

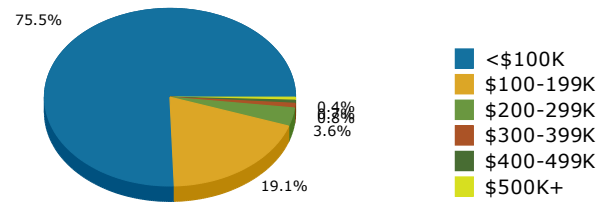

2015 Population by Age

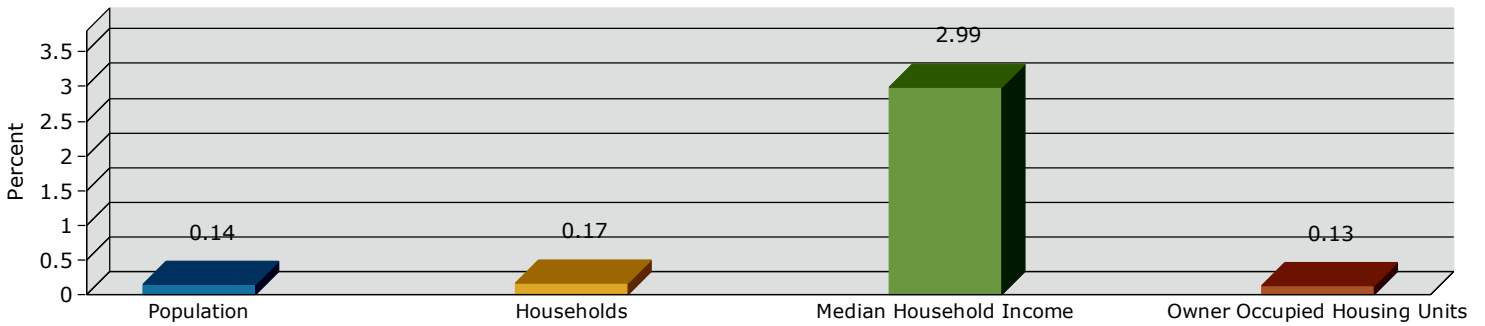

Households

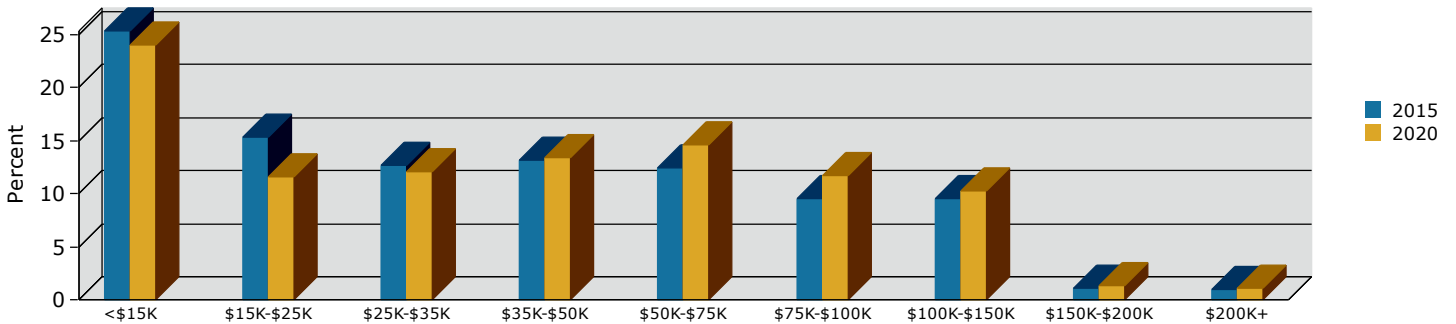

2015 Home Value

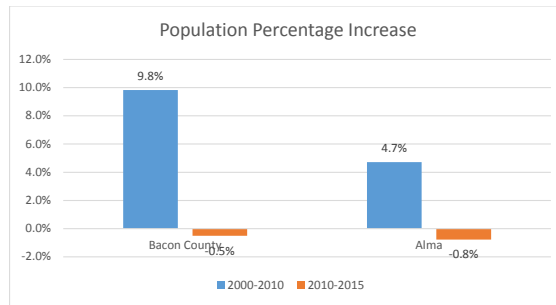

2015-2020 Annual Growth Rate

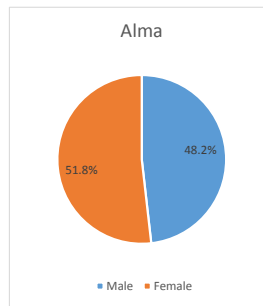

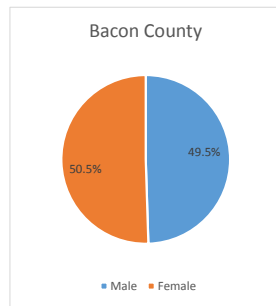

Household Income

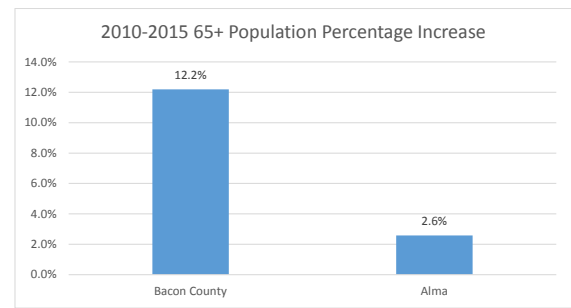

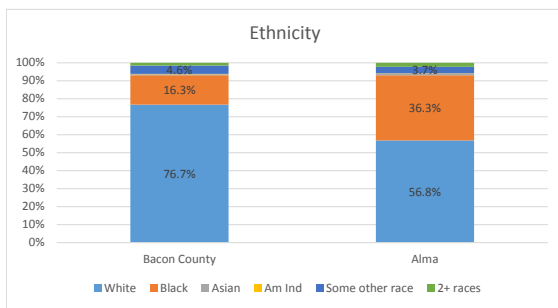

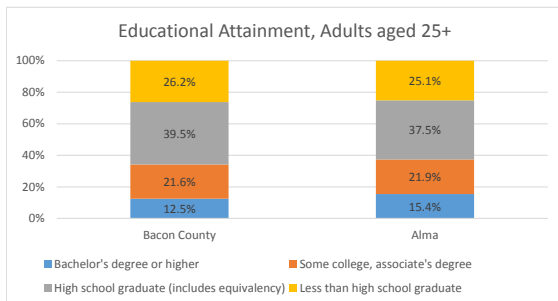

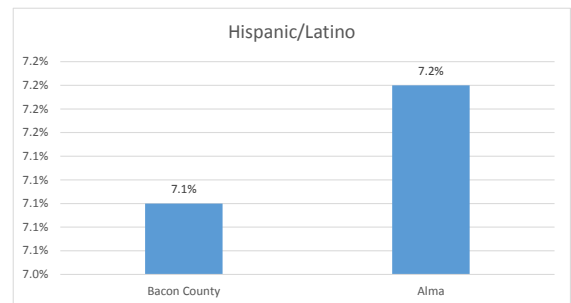

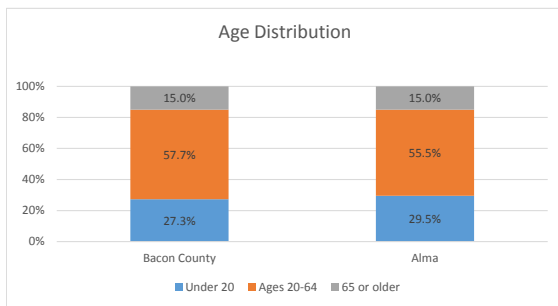

Both the City of Alma and the County lost population between 2010 and 2015 after gaining population the previous decade.

Alma and the county both have more females than males.

The population of seniors is increasing throughout the City and the County.

For adults over 25, educational attainment is slightly higher in the City of Alma.

