About the Southern Georgia Regional Commission's Area Agency on Aging

The Southern Georgia AAA develops, provides, and coordinates programs and services for older individuals, at-risk adults, and persons with disabilities in an 18-county region. The AAA serves as your Aging and Disability Resource Connection (ARDC). When a client or caregiver calls 1-888-732-4464, an ARDC counselor will provide information and assistance, explore long-term care options, and/or screen for program eligibility. The nurses and social workers who work as ARDC counselors are impartial and trained to help you navigate the labyrinth of potential services and programs. If you have interest in any of the following services—or just don't know where to begin—pick up the phone and make that call.
